EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- I. In the specification prior to the first line the following has been inserted;
--This application is a divisional of prior application No. 08/857,991 filed on May 16, 1997 and now US Patent No. 6,669,790.--

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for allowance is that none of the references alone or in combination teach or suggests a method of making an iron-based alloy comprising; precipitating eutectic chromium carbides of a first alloy system and primary carbides of a second alloy system selected from the group consisting vanadium carbides, niobium carbides, titanium carbides and combinations thereof wherein the primary carbides are precipitated at a primary carbide liquidus of the second alloy system which has a eutectic that is maintained below an austenite liquidus of the first alloy system to prevent formation of the eutectic carbides of the second alloy system.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
